A WITNESS TO MISCONDUCT REPORTS
Anyone can file a report to the Title IX Coordinator about an incident of sexual misconduct or gender discrimination.

A RESPONSIBLE EMPLOYEE REPORTS
All college employees are required to report incidents of sexual misconduct or gender discrimination to the Title IX Coordinator and to include all information they know.

STUDENTS REPORTS THEIR EXPERIENCE
Students who have experienced sexual misconduct or gender discrimination can file a report with the Title IX Coordinator.

THE COLLEGE SHALL CONDUCT A PROMPT AND THOROUGH INVESTIGATION OF THE ALLEGED INCIDENT.
The alleged offender and the complainant shall have the right to have an advisor, lawyer, or witnesses at the interview.

THE COLLEGE OFFICIAL WILL:

- Interview the complainant to establish the basic facts and identify witnesses and physical evidence, if any (a detailed written complaint must be obtained).

- Interview the alleged offender, to allow the alleged offender an opportunity to admit, deny or explain each allegation in the complainant’s statement and identify witnesses or physical evidence, if any. The alleged offender will be instructed not to discuss the incident or the complaint with the complainant.

- Interview any witnesses. Witnesses will be informed that any matters that are discussed will be handled as discreetly as possible.

- The College will use a preponderance of the evidence standard in determining if a violation of the policy occurred.

IMPORTANT TERMS DEFINED

Sexual Misconduct
Sexual assault, sexual harassment, stalking, and dating or domestic violence.

Gender Discrimination
Differentiating treatment of individuals based on their actual or perceived sex.

Complainant
The student who experienced the sexual misconduct or gender discrimination.

Respondent
The individual (student, staff or faculty member) who is accused of the misconduct.

Witness
Individual who provides information about an incident of misconduct.
WHEN THE APPROPRIATE COLLEGE OFFICIAL HAS DETERMINED AN OFFENSE HAS OCCURRED, ACTION SHALL BE TAKEN AS FOLLOWS:

- When the offender is a student, the discipline shall be commensurate with the offense. (See Sanctions for Misconduct)
- Written notification of the judgment will be given to both the respondent and the complainant.
- If the offense is a violation of the law the matter will be referred to local Law Enforcement.
- The College will use a preponderance of the evidence standard in determining if a violation of the policy occurred.

ANY CONDUCT WHICH COULD REASONABLY BE PERCEIVED AS RETALIATORY, such as accosting, calling or writing to the complainant or encouraging third parties to harass the complainant because of her/his complaint is prohibited and shall be considered an independent violation of this policy.

VICTIMS HAVE THE RIGHT TO REQUEST CHANGES TO THEIR ACADEMIC SITUATION, such as change of program or campus if the program is available on another campus or to request a leave of absence.
